J. BRAHMS/arr. JAMES MCCULLOUGH

O wüsst' ich doc den Weg zurück (O That I Knew the Way Back Home)

TTBB and Piano

"Brahms' best songs are small, priceless jewels. They are unusual, mysterious, inventive, bass heavy, uncomplicated, melodious, and are glorious creations! O wüsst' ich doch den Weg zurück is a magnificent, miniature masterpiece of nostalgic longing for childhood, relinquishing mature growth, and yearning for an earthly, unattainable paradise." —James McCullough Duration: 4:04

JOSEPH GREGORIO

Sudden Light

TTBB Chorus a cappella

Composed as a wedding gift for the composer's wife, and premiered under the baton of Kimberly Dunn Adams at the composer's wedding, Sudden Light sets Dante Gabriel Rossetti's beautiful and mysterious poem of the etze name. An attractive and useful piece on programs concerning love and commitment, and for performance at marriage ceremonies.

ROBERT KYR

Ode to Music

TTBB Chorus a cappella

Commissioned by the Harvard Glee Club. The world premiere performance by the Harvard Glee Club took place on December 22, 2013, in Woolsey Hall at Yale University, New Haven, CT, conducted by Harris Ipock. As the title suggests, the music and words by the composer are an ode to music. Skillfully wrought and aurally satisfying.

DON MACDONALD

When the Earth Stands Still

TTBB Chorus a cappella

"I wrote this for my wife's small but advanced youth choir...I decided to compose a song much as a contemporary songwriter would, with my own lyrics and a form based around repeating verse and chorus...one of the easiest pieces of mine to learn yet one of the hardest to perform since the long phrases require a great deal of attention to dynamics, breathing, and consistency of tone." —Don Macdonald

NAOMI SHEMER/arr. ALICE PARKER

Yerushalayim shel zahav (Jerusalem of Gold)

Baritone Solo and TTBB Chorus a cappella

Naomi Shemer wrote this lovely poem honoring the fabled city, Jerusalem. Its history and mystery are evoked in each verse and in the passionate refrain. Naomi Shemer's music, with its mixture of nostalgia, melancholy and desire, lifts her verses to memorable phrases: one does not want the song to end.

PAUL JOHN RUDOI

Yonder Come Day

Solo TTBB Chorus a cappella

Paul John Rudoi's arrangement of Yonder Come Day deepens the traditional Georgia Sea Islands tune with a narrative journey. Through other well known spirituals, including "Hush, Hush, Somebody's Calling My Name," "Steal Away," and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," we move forward and upward, hoping for a better day. Infectious fun for the singers and the audience. Duration: 3:30

BYRON ADAMS

Eventide

TTBB Soli, TTBB Chorus a cappella

Commissioned, broadcasted, and recorded by Cantus, this piece is a love-letter to the literary and musical traditions of nineteenth-century America. Setting a beloved poem by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Adams has created a warm and eloquent piece for male chorus that evokes the quiet villages of New England, the verities of hearth and home, and the touching beauty of an abiding love expressed through poetry and music.

MATTHEW CULLOTON

In dulci júbilo

TTTBB and Solo or Small Group, a cappella

A new arrangement of the bestselling original SSAATBB voicing set on the tune IN DULCI JUBILO. From the outset a unique choral accompaniment is established, incorporating a vibrant rhythmic motif that is prevalent throughout the piece. The melody is easily identifiable throughout, and a quiet energy makes this an exciting setting. Particularly effective for advanced choirs.

STANLEY M. HOFFMAN

O Absalom

TTBB Chorus a cappella

The form of this piece consists of three dirges and a thrice-repeated refrain, detailing the story of King David and the death of his rebellious son, Absalom. The grief-driven text is itself repetitive which inspired similar musical treatment.

#twitterlieder

15 Tweets in 3 Acts for Soloists, Chorus and Instrumental Ensemble

Tenor and Baritone Soli, TTBB, Piano or Chamber Ensemble

"#twitterlieder" chronicles an entire life through a quintessentially 21st century communication style. It is comprised of 15 tweets, with no more than 140 characters in each. The very essence of tweeting is brevity, and this is reflected in the duration of each movement; a vignette in a life unfolding.
