

Look Who Gathers at Christ's Table

Choir: *Look who gathers at Christ's table! Hear the stories that they bring.
Some are weeping, some are laughing, some have songs they want to sing.
Others ask why they're invited, burdened by the wrong they've done.
Christ insists they all are welcome. There is room for everyone.*

Choir: *Clouds of light surround the table; ancient followers appear.
Saints confessing how they wrestled with their guilt, their doubt, their fear.
Peter tells of his denying Christ was ever in his sight;
Paul relates his fruitless efforts to obliterate the light.*

Choir: Their sad stories are repeated in a thousand different ways, but they share one thing in common: they all end in thanks and praise for the host who has invited north and south and east and west to converge around this table, where all life is fed and blest.

All:

Bring your joy and bring your sad-ness, and pre-pare to be sur-prised by the host whose hands are wound-ed, who will o-pen wide your eyes when he bless-es bread and breaks it— truth and man-na from a-bove!— and then pass-es wine that wak-ens in your heart the taste of love.
