ROBERT APPLEBAUM

A Trip to the Zoo

Treble Chorus and Piano

Composed for Daniel Wallenberg and the Rogers Park and Humboldt Park neighborhood choirs of the Chicago Children's Choir. The four pieces in the set (Wordy Birdies, The Elephant, Snake Eyes, and Monkey Business) are keyboard-accompanied rounds (3- and 4-part) with original lyrics. Intended for children's ensembles, some performances have been enhanced by the addition of simple "choreography" developed by the director along with the participating children.

DWIGHT BIGLER

Miss Mackenzie

SSAA Chorus and Piano Four-hands

A magical piece which at first glance is about its title character, but as it unfolds, becomes intensely personal to each singer and listener. Lyrical and sublime, the Anthony Trollope text belies its simplicity by speaking a universal message of youth, age, self-acceptance, and love. The music is beautifully appropriate and fulfilling. A must for all women's ensembles.

ROBERT KYR

Dona nobis pacem

Soprano and Alto Soli and Women's Chorus

(SSA/SSA) unaccompanied

A challenging work for skilled women's choruses featuring ethereal harmonies and soaring melodies. The soloists' lines are stunning.

J. BRAHMS/arr. JAMES MCCULLOUGH

O wüsst' ich doc den Weg zurück

(O That I Knew the Way Back Home)

SSA and Piano

"Brahms' best songs are small, priceless jewels. They are unusual, mysterious, inventive, bass heavy, uncomplicated, melodious, and are glorious creations! O wüsst' ich doch den Weg zurück is a magnificent, miniature masterpiece of nostalgic longing for childhood, relinquishing mature growth, and yearning for an earthly, unattainable paradise."—James McCullough Duration: 4:04

DON MACDONALD

When the Earth Stands Still

SSAA Chorus a cappella

"I wrote this for my wife's small but advanced youth choir...I decided to compose a song much as a contemporary songwriter would, with my own lyrics and a form based around repeating verse and chorus...one of the easiest pieces of mine to learn yet one of the hardest to perform since the long phrases require a great deal of attention to dynamics, breathing, and consistency of tone."—Don Macdonald

H. PURCELL/arr. HAL H. HOPSON

Sing, Be Joyful

SA and Keyboard

Hal Hopson is known for his wonderful adaptations of classic pieces. The text for this piece is a paraphrase of Psalm 100 and an adaptation of a work by Henry Purcell. The piece is appropriate for both Children's or Women's voices.

PAUL JOHN RUDOI

Yonder Come Day

Soprano Solo, SSAA Chorus a cappella

Paul John Rudoi's arrangement of Yonder Come Day deepens the traditional Georgia Sea Islands tune with a narrative journey. Through other well known spirituals, including "Hush, Hush, Somebody's Calling My Name," "Steal Away," and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," we move forward and upward, hoping for a better day. Infectious fun for the singers and the audience. Duration: 3:30

TOM SHELTON

We Sing Alleluia

Treble Solo, Treble Chorus, Flute, Violin,

Tone Chimes, and Piano

This piece for treble voices begins with a simple, chanted "Alleluia" and then blossoms into a beautiful expression of praise. The original text revels in the beauty of nature and the connection between people. A perfect piece for festivals, school, or church. Instrumental parts for Flute, Violin, and Tone Chimes are sold separately. Duration: 4:30

MICHAEL JOHN TROTТА

Spend All You Have on Loveliness

SSAA Chorus, Piano, and opt. Oboe

American poet Sara Teasdale (1884–1933) won the Pulitzer Prize for her 1917 collection of poems titled Love Songs. The text for this song is taken from "Barter," the first in this set of poems. Despite the poet's history of poor emotional and physical health, the text captures a hopeful attitude that foreshadows the spirit of optimism that was the precursor to the Roaring Twenties.

ERIC TUAN

Nocturne

Soprano Solo, SSAA Chorus divisi a cappella

Eric Tuan offers treble choirs a sumptuous, melancholy song of lost love based on "Poem XX" from Veinte poemas de amor y una canción desesperada by Pablo Neruda (1904–1973).
